TYPICAL ASSIGNMENTS

Managing your business through recessionary times

Most businesses have been affected by the sudden and deep decline in the fortunes of the Irish and global economy.

We design and implement recovery strategies for clients both on a personal and corporate basis. Our team has successfully completed recovery projects that allow businesses to continue trading and strengthen their financial positions, enabling them to grow when conditions change for the better. Where required, we also advise on alternative remedies including liquidations, schemes of arrangement and examinership.
