

Your right to restrict processing of your personal data

When can I restrict processing?

You may have processing of your personal data restricted:

- While we are verifying the accuracy of your personal data which you have contested;
- If you choose restricted processing over erasure where processing is unlawful;
- If we no longer need the personal data for its original purpose but are required to hold the personal data for defence of legal claims;
- Where you have objected to the processing (where it was necessary for the performance of a public interest task or purpose of legitimate interests), and we are considering whether our legitimate grounds override.

What if Cooney Carey has provided my personal data to third parties?

Where we have disclosed your personal data in question to third parties, we will inform them about the restriction on the processing, unless it is impossible or involves disproportionate effort to do so.

How will I know if the restriction is lifted by Cooney Carey and/or relevant third parties?

We will inform on an individual basis when a restriction on processing has been lifted.
